FEATURES

Taking its cue from 19th-century European designs, our architecturally inspired dining table sits atop shapely, hand-turned balusters resting on ball feet. The softly weathered finish imparts the patina and presence of an heirloom.

- Constructed by hand of solid oak
- Mortise-and-tenon joinery
- Hand finished
- Spindle-turned baluster legs
- Tabletop wrapped with a food-safe, zinc-finished sheet steel that's been pieced and welded

- Multistep finishing process darkens the top, lending it the appealing look of age
- Zinc-finished top protected by an enduring clear coat
- This item is artisan crafted with meticulous care. Nicks, imperfections and natural variations in color are to be expected and celebrated.
