

CITIZEN FEMME

This Week CF Loves

This Week CF Loves: 27.10.25

By: Sheena Bhattacha

Oct 27, 2025

This week, we're elevating our weekend escapes — whether it's for culinary delights, inspiring design or festive magic.

We're looking forward to enchanting winter wonderlands to brighten cloudy days, designer lunches with panoramic views (we're talking Paris), and indulgent gastronomic adventures. All neatly wrapped up in a must-have wardrobe addition to keep you snugly, and of course sartorially, toasty. This is what we're loving in this week's Citizen Femme hotlist.

2.

VISIT THIS

RH Paris, The Gallery on the Champs Élysées

Art and design lovers' have had their attention on Paris with events like Design Miami Paris and Art Basel Paris. The American luxury home-furnishings brand RH has made a bold arrival in the capital to add to Paris' design credentials with the launch of its first major European "Gallery" at 23 Avenue des Champs-Élysées, a fantastic new addition to add to your next Paris itinerary. This seven-floor, 3,900 m² space goes beyond furniture. Le Petit RH and Le Jardin RH are two restaurants (one with rooftop dining) in the prime location of the Champs Élysées; the World of RH Bar – a physical and digital immersion into the places and spaces that define the brand, where you can enjoy a glass of wine or a craft cocktail by legendary bartender Colin Field; art exhibits and furniture collections, of course; the secret garden; and the Architecture & Design Bibliotheque – housing a collection of rare and contemporary books from some of the most influential creators of the last 2,000 years, including Vitruvius, Da Vinci, and Haussmann as well as the first edition of De Architectura Libri Dece, the ten books on architecture, printed in 1521 – a testament to the brand’s design ethos.

October 27, 2025

Address: 23 Avenue des Champs-Élysées, 75008
Paris, France

MORE INFO