

AD

The Best of Milan Design Week 2026, According to AD Editors

Field notes from the design world's favorite festival

By Hannah Martin, Mel Studach, and Madeline O'Malley

April 24, 2026

Longest Line: RH Milan Showroom Opening on Corso Venezia

Inside the new RH Milan's La Volta restaurant Courtesy RH Milan

If there was one place to be on Tuesday night—not just in Milan, but in the world—it was the RH Gallery opening on Corso Venezia. Between the celeb sightings (Margot Robbie, Zoe Saldaña) and the food and drink offerings (a fully recreated Bar Basso), to call the event a “showroom opening” is a massive understatement. The 19th-century palazzo that houses the new Gallery was once home to the Prince of Piombino, and now boasts seven floors of furniture, design, and RH's first Italian restaurant, La Volta. The brand also debuted RH Estates, a new program with a massive shift in both product offerings and overall style, featuring original designs by Michael Taylor. Consider RH's California Cool spirit officially brought to the design capital of the world.—M.O

April 24, 2026