

AMICA

◀ Margot Robbie in Milan for Fuorisalone 2026 (with a very Milanese look) ▶

An ensemble from Giorgio Armani's F/W 2026 collection defines a contemporary elegance made of soft volumes

Margot Robbie made a surprise appearance at the RH Milan presentation , The Gallery , on April 21, 2026. The actress, invited alongside other stars from the world of film and fashion—from Zoe Saldana to Brunello Cucinelli—exhibited a relaxed and perfectly balanced elegance.

Zoe Saldana and Margot Robbie in Milan at the "RH Milan, The Gallery on Corso Venezia" event on April 21, 2026, during Design Week. (Photo by Alessandro Levati/Getty Images for RH)

The standout piece is a gray suit by Giorgio Armani, taken from the Fall/Winter 2026 collection. The relaxed silhouette is built around a double-breasted blazer with broad shoulders, a key element that recalls the brand's heritage but reinterprets it with a light touch. Underneath, a knit sweater softens the silhouette, revealing a printed turtleneck shirt that adds visual depth and a sophisticated graphic accent.

April 22, 2026

Giorgio Armani. Fall/Winter 2026-27
Fashion Show

The soft and flowing trousers accompany movement without constraint, contributing to a formal yet dynamic balance. The accessories introduce targeted contrasts: the red belt accentuates the waist with bold color, while the burgundy shoes harmoniously engage with the palette. This ensemble demonstrates how Giorgio Armani's vision continues to offer contemporary tools for a conscious femininity, where comfort and refinement coexist without compromise.