

HOUSE & GARDEN

DECORATION

The ultimate Milan Design Week 2026 guide: 19 things that are actually worth seeing

Kelly Wearstler's H&M Home collection, Ai Weiwei's political statement in silk, Eames's modular homes and more – these are the highlights you simply can't miss

By Pratyush Sarup And Amy Bradford

17 April 2026

4. Welcome to RH Milan's palatial Italian home

A new RH site reimagines the late nineties California look through a contemporary lens Stefano Gusmeroli

After making its mark in Paris with a showstopping gallery on the Champs-Élysée, RH – the American luxury furniture brand, formerly Restoration Hardware – makes its debut in the Italian design capital on Corso Venezia. Set across seven levels within a jewel of neoclassical architecture that was restored to its former palatial glory, the brand's Milan Design Week premiere introduces RH Estates. A new direction for RH, it reimagines the late nineties California look through a contemporary lens. You can also discover new and continued partnerships with design industry icons. Next stop, London. 56, Corso Venezia.

April 20, 2026