THE The electricity, excitement, and social life of Milan's Fuorisalone continue to attract celebrities from around the world. The city seems to never stop, with inaugurations, exclusive dinners, and social events. The latest stars to succumb to the Milanese charm of Design Week are Margot Robbie and Zoe Saldaña. Directly from Hollywood, the actresses were photographed together during one of the most exclusive events of the week: the inauguration of RH Milan, The Gallery at Corso Venezia 56.

A new address for luxury in the city

RH Milan, The Gallery marks the brand's entry into the Italian market with an ambitious project: a 19th-century neo-Renaissance palace completely restored and transformed into a seven-level space dedicated to high-end furnishings. Passing through imposing bronze and glass doors, one enters the refined library dedicated to architecture and design: a unique and precious space containing rare volumes by great masters such as Leonardo da Vinci and Andrea Palladio. Spanning over 7,000 square meters, the gallery combines indoor and outdoor collections, artworks and antiques, becoming a new luxury destination in the heart of the fashion district.
