

Who's showing at Milan Design Week 2026? Stars at Fuorisalone events

From the chicest literary club by Miu Miu to the theatrical (and very Italian) red carpet of The Devil Wears Prada 2 at Rinascente

by MARTINA D'AMELIO

THE Milan Design Week 2026? More and more like a fashion week. With inaugurations, cocktails, and fashion and furniture events, the Fuorisalone confirms itself as an open-air catwalk: the official front rows are replaced by high-glamor appearances and meticulously crafted street style looks. And while the Salone del Mobile remains the beating heart of the city, it's the stars, both international and local, who make the headlines, who flock to the week's most photographed events.

International stars at Fuorisalone 2026

A completely different atmosphere reigned at RH Milan's Milan debut at the Palazzo del Principe di Piombino on Corso Venezia, where the style was split: Margot Robbie opted for the calibrated allure of tailoring in a men's-cut gray Giorgio Armani suit, while Zoe Saldña went all out for sensuality, wrapped in a Saint Laurent lace dress and sheer tights. Closing out the international chapter was the secret dinner hosted by David Lauren to celebrate the American brand's home collection, where Jessica Chastain perfectly embodied the house's sophisticated elegance in a chocolate-colored belted dress, while Eva Herzigová embraced the current Lady Oscar trend in an impeccable Napoleonic-style uniform.

April 24, 2026