IMPOSSIBLE IS NOTHING. –Muhammad Ali

“IMPOSSIBLE IS JUST A BIG WORD THROWN AROUND BY SMALL MEN WHO FIND IT EASIER TO LIVE IN THE WORLD THEY’VE BEEN GIVEN THAN TO EXPLORE THE POWER THEY HAVE TO CHANGE IT. IMPOSSIBLE IS NOT A FACT. IT’S AN OPINION. IMPOSSIBLE IS NOT A DECLARATION. IT’S A DARE. IMPOSSIBLE IS POTENTIAL. IMPOSSIBLE IS TEMPORARY. IMPOSSIBLE IS NOTHING.”

Activist, artist, antagonist. Philosopher, poet, promoter. Vietnam War adversary. Civil rights advocate. African-American fighter. Muslim man of peace. Olympic gold medalist. Three-time heavyweight champion of the world. Nothing was impossible for Muhammad Ali, born Cassius Marcellus Clay, Jr. on January 17, 1942 in Louisville, Kentucky. Shortly after winning the heavyweight championship of the world in 1964, Ali was stripped of his title and arrested in 1966 for refusing to participate in the Vietnam War. He fought back to overturn the conviction in the Supreme Court in 1971, and reclaimed the championship at the infamous “Rumble in the Jungle” on October 30, 1974, in Kinshasa, Zaire. He continued his fight against social injustice long past his days as the most celebrated and recognized sporting figure of the past century, and was awarded the Presidential Citizens Medal, the Presidential Medal of Freedom and the Otto Hahn Peace Medal for his efforts to unite a world divided by race, religion and prejudice. Muhammad Ali fought his final round this year and was laid to rest in his hometown of Louisville after battling Parkinson’s disease since 1984.

In a world where we are taught to conform from the day we are born, Muhammad Ali defied conventional wisdom and challenged the status quo. He illuminated a path of innovation and change, acceptance and understanding, hope and justice around the world.

We are inspired by the life and legacy of the man referred to as “The Greatest,” and embrace his words that “Impossible is Nothing.” As a publicly traded company, you’re often rewarded for duplication and punished for innovation, decisions that require some level of short-term pain for long-term gain. We’ve taken our share of punches this past year for standing up for those things we believe in, decisions that will elevate our brand and inspire our customers for years to come. We’ve eliminated the chaos of typical retail promotions with endless and meaningless sales, and moved to a membership model that allows our guests to shop for what they want, when they want, always at 25% off. We delayed the mailing of our Spring Source Books to Fall, allowing us time to remodel the entire house, so to speak, unveiling a revolutionary new design by renowned art director Fabien Baron. The books are filled with stunning collections and pieces that reflect a fresh and contemporary point of view. We are also remodeling all of our Galleries, introducing RH Modern and adding Design Ateliers – integrated workrooms where you can imagine and design your entire home. We continue to challenge current thinking that retail stores are dying and all shopping is moving online. We are creating some of the most innovative and immersive retail experiences in our industry: witness RH Chicago, The Gallery at the Historic Three Arts Club (see the article “My Kind of Town” on page 658), a five-story, century-old building we reimagined and restored that blurs the lines between residential and retail, indoors and outdoors, home and hospitality, integrating a restaurant, wine vault, pantry and coffee bar by famed Chicago restaurateur Brendan Sodikoff.

We continue our quest to unite and integrate the ideas of the most forward-thinking people in our industry. The many designers, artisans, architects and manufacturers highlighted throughout the pages of our new Fall Source Books who, like Ali, have challenged conventional wisdom, breaking down stylistic barriers and contributing to an evolving conversation of a new and inspiring way to live.

Thank you, Muhammad, for fighting. Thank you for showing us what is possible when we stand up for what we believe in. Thank you for inspiring us to explore the power we have to change the world, and thank you for changing it so profoundly yourself.

Most of all, thank you for living such a brave and inspiring life and, by doing so, demonstrating Impossible is Nothing.

Carpe Diem,

Gary Friedman
CHAIRMAN & CEO

IMAGINE

YOURSELF HERE

The background image is a high-end interior design studio. It features a large, multi-tiered chandelier made of glass rods hanging from a high ceiling with ornate moldings. The walls are a deep charcoal grey, adorned with several framed abstract artworks and a large, ornate gold-framed mirror on the right. The room is furnished with a modern, light-colored sofa, a low coffee table, and two armchairs with gold frames. Large arched windows in the background offer a view of a city street at night. The overall atmosphere is one of luxury and modern elegance.

IMAGINE

*The infinite potential of a blank canvas.
The reinvention of your favorite room.
The home you hope to create.*

WE BELIEVE THE MOST PLEASING ENVIRONMENTS ARE A REFLECTION OF HUMAN DESIGN. THEY ARE A STUDY OF BALANCE, SYMMETRY AND PERFECT PROPORTIONS. WE RESPECT THE HIERARCHY AND IMPORTANT RELATIONSHIPS BETWEEN ARCHITECTURE, FURNITURE AND DÉCOR THAT CREATE HARMONY. IT'S A DISCIPLINE OF ADDITION THROUGH SUBTRACTION, WHERE LESS BECOMES MORE, AND CALM IS CREATED THROUGH CONTINUITY. THE RESULT IS A HOLISTIC DESIGN THAT IS STRONG YET SIMPLE. WE SUBSCRIBE TO LEONARDO DA VINCI'S PHILOSOPHY THAT "SIMPLICITY IS THE ULTIMATE SOPHISTICATION."

OUR DESIGNERS PLACE YOU AT THE CENTER OF THE CREATIVE PROCESS, WORKING TO REALIZE THE POTENTIAL OF YOUR HOME, AND TO BRING YOUR VISION TO LIFE.

All you have to do is imagine.

The ART OF SHIBORI INTRODUCING the HAND-DYED VELVET Collection

Designed by
KEVIN O'BRIEN
PHILADELPHIA

IN HOMAGE TO SHIBORI, THE ANCIENT JAPANESE ART OF RESIST-DYEING FABRIC, DESIGNER KEVIN O'BRIEN REINTERPRETS ITS BOLD EFFECTS ON LUSH COTTON VELVET. EMPLOYING METHODS IN USE FOR OVER A THOUSAND YEARS, ARTISANS IN A SMALL NEPALESE WORKSHOP LOOSELY FOLD THE MATTE FABRIC, BIND IT WITH STRING AND DIP IT IN PIGMENT. THE RESULTS ARE PATTERNS THAT EVOKE THE TRANSLUCENCE OF WATERCOLOR, EACH PILLOW BEAUTIFULLY HANDCRAFTED AND ONE OF A KIND.

OUT OF AFRICA

INTRODUCING
the KUBA CLOTH COLLECTION

BOLDLY GRAPHIC AND EVOCATIVE, KUBA CLOTH EXPRESSES THE ART AND CULTURE OF THE KUBA PEOPLE OF CONGO. EMPLOYING ANCIENT AFRICAN TECHNIQUES, THE MEN HAND WEAVE THE RAFFIA FIBERS ON SINGLE-HEDDLE LOOMS, THEN SOFTEN THE CLOTH, CALLED MBAL, BY POUNDING IT WITH MORTARS. KUBA WOMEN HAND STITCH THE APPLIQUÉS, FOLLOWING THEIR INSPIRATION AS THE LABYRINTHINE, ONE-OF-A-KIND DESIGNS TAKE SHAPE.

INTRODUCING
AUTHENTIC AFRICAN MUD CLOTH
CENTURIES-OLD
TRIBAL HANDWORK

HANDCRAFTED FROM AUTHENTIC WEST AFRICAN MUD CLOTH, OR BÒGÒLANFINI, OUR PILLOW COVERS REFLECT THE CENTURIES-OLD ART OF MUD DYEING COTTON AND EMBELLISHING IT WITH DISTINCTIVE TRIBAL PATTERNS. IN A TIME-INTENSIVE PROCESS, LOCAL ARTISANS BATHE THE COTTON IN NATURAL DYES MADE FROM TREE LEAVES AND DRY IT IN THE SUN. THEN, THEY HAND PAINT TRADITIONAL GEOMETRIC MOTIFS USING FERMENTED RIVER MUD. EACH COVER IS UNIQUELY ONE OF A KIND.

OUT of CLUTTER Find Simplicity – Albert Einstein

While Albert Einstein – esteemed physicist, philosopher and developer of the theory of relativity – wasn’t talking about the chaotic state of retail promotions when he penned the quote above, his sentiment captures a feeling many of us share. Our lives are filled with complexity – and we long to break through the clutter to find simplicity.

We have more tools, but less time. We’re in more meetings, with less meaning. There are more tweets, but less truth. More texting, less talking. And certainly, more sales, yet less satisfaction.

Until now, we’ve found ourselves, like others, victims of our own history. Spending countless hours planning and promoting sale after sale – and not enough time doing the things we love.

We’re passionate about products, not promotions. We dream of design, not discounts. We’re inspired by architecture, not advertising. We obsess about the small details, not the sale emails. After some soul-searching, we came to the following, some may say obvious, conclusions.

We want to shop for what we want, when we want and receive the greatest value. No one wants their inbox flooded with sale messages and, quite frankly, we don’t like sending them. None of us has the time or patience to figure out who is having a sale, or to enter endless promo codes at checkout to find the price.

So, we’re changing things. It’s that simple.

We’re introducing the RH Members Program, and we invite you to join. For a $100 annual fee, you’ll receive 25% savings on everything RH.* Every day. Plus, enjoy complimentary interior design services, a concierge service to manage your orders, preferred financing,† plus early access and an additional discount at clearance events. To become a member, stop into one of our galleries or join online at RH.com.

While we’re certainly not comparing membership to his theory of relativity, we do believe Albert would agree that we have attempted to remove the clutter and make shopping with us relatively simple.

Carpe Diem,

Gary Friedman
CHAIRMAN & CEO
