FEATURES

The clean, linear aesthetic of American industrial design, c. 1940, introduced highly functional furnishings to offices (and forward-thinking homes) across the country. That it has remained in continuous production ever since attests to its versatility, practicality and endurance. Our reproductions combine desktops and storage to maximize the space available, offering design flexibility and optimal surface area for multiple uses.

- Stoutly constructed of iron sheet metal

- In gunmetal finish, a tribute to the darker colors of the original
- Made for workspace customization
- Drawers equipped with brass pulls and label frames

CARE
