FEATURES

In the early part of the 20th century, the architects of the Bauhaus celebrated transparency, revealing the sculptural skeletons of buildings with curtain walls of glass. Our tables salute that influential aesthetic, with thick, clear panes that meet at mitered corners, supported by a riveted iron frame.

- Inspired by Modernist architecture
- Broad, thick panes of glass flow uninterrupted from top to floor
- Bold, angular black iron frames are detailed with exposed rivets
