FEATURES

Rough-hewn timbers with the character and heft of salvaged railroad ties form the bases of our dining tables. A classic trestle style harkens back to its 17th-century origins, while the tops are hand wrapped in brass with the deep-grey finish of aged zinc.

- Trestle-style base is hand built from substantial solid timbers
- The top is clad in brass sheet with a food-safe, aged zinc finish
- Features a brushed surface and exposed nailheads
- Each table is unique and no two are exactly alike

- This item is artisan crafted with meticulous care. Given its handmade and hand-finished nature, variations in the wood or metalwork are to be expected and celebrated.
