Restoration Drama

With RH Atlanta, the Gallery at the Estate in Buckhead, Restoration Hardware unwraps its latest evolution: a 70,000-square-foot retail palace that unfolds over six levels, with furnishings arranged in intimate rooms. Light pours through French doors, a rooftop terrace boasts skyline views, gardens trickle with fountains. “We want to blur the lines between residential and retail,” says chairman and CEO Gary Friedman. “Why shouldn’t a store feel like home?”
