GREAT OUTDOORS

OUT BACK

Spruce up your backyard space with the recent launch of RH, Restoration Hardware's 2017 RH Outdoor collaborative collection.

By Jessica Cherner

RH Outdoor's pieces are making their way to RH Atlanta, The Gallery at the Estate in Buckhead, and select collections will be on display later this spring on the rooftop park and conservatory to make their mark on the city's designcentric set. With statement pieces in each collaboration, the sofas, sectionals, lighting and more are sure to spruce up any space with their subtle elegance and bold design. Think sofas with teak frames and chaises made from all-weather rope in a herringbone weave pattern. Perhaps the factor that makes these particular collaborations so special is their wide variety of designers and artisans. From Ann Marie Vering to Harrison and Nicholas Condos, each collaborator has contributed to a cohesive yet distinct collection for RH Outdoor unlike any other. 3030 Peachtree Road NW, rh.com
